

Pimples and Zits

(words and music Barbara Stacey)

Pimples and zits and explosions on the face,

What a huge curse on the human race!

Hair that wants to curl and teeth that won't grow straight,

Then you get a voice that just won't break,

Adolescence, impossible to bear! Adolescence, I wish I wasn't there!

Adolescence, I squeeze and poke and stare at the mirror in the bathroom,

'Cause my girlfriend doesn't care for

Pimples and zits and the explosions on the face

What a huge curse on the human race!

Hair that wants to curl and teeth that won't grow straight,

Then you get a voice that just won't break,

Adolescence, impossible to bear! Adolescence, I wish I wasn't there!

Adolescence, I squeeze and poke and stare at the mirror in the bathroom,

'Cause my girlfriend doesn't care for me!
