

Waiting for the Bus

It's boring, waiting for the bus, it's boring, we never make a fuss, but it's boring, (I'm snoring) waiting for the bus, zzzz

We could be out on an excursion to the zoo or gallery, Or playing in the finals we'll be Premiers in Grade B, we could be singing in the Opera House or playing in the band, but we ain't going nowhere on the footpath here we stand!

And it's so boring waiting for the bus,
it's boring, we never make a fuss, but it's boring, (I'm snoring) zzzz waiting for the bus.

We could be sailing round the harbour in a ship like Captain Cook, or checking out the library to find that special book, we might be visiting an old folks' home to try and lend a hand, but we ain't going nowhere on the footpath here we stand!

(whistle blow, voice over,)

"Right you kids, line up here comes the bus at last, stop shoving Natasha, we'll all get on!"
